

MEMORANDUM OF UNDERSTANDING FOR ENHANCED CO-OPERATION BETWEEN Institution of Occupational Safety and Health NI and Northern Ireland Safety Group

The purpose of this memorandum of understanding is to support a shared vision of a safe and healthy world of work for all and to jointly promote Occupational Health and Safety in accordance with the strategic objectives of the Institution of Occupational Safety and Health NI and Northern Ireland Safety Group in the following key areas:

MEMBERSHIP

To promote Occupational Health and Safety through membership. Northern Ireland Safety Group has organisational membership, and the Institution of Occupational Safety and Health NI has individual membership. We commit to enhancing membership through collaboration and building a long-term strategic partnership.

EVENTS and ACTIVITIES

To seek to promote the events and activities of both organisations, lead and forge mutually beneficial collaborative relationships with like-minded organisations, coordinate programmes to complement each other's events and activities, strengthen our influence and impact locally, nationally and internationally, and to ultimately to deliver practical and valuable outcomes to our memberships.

PUBLICATIONS

To influence and enhance the promotion of a positive public perception of health and safety, enabling the sharing of knowledge and learning and to communicate information both on and offline by using literature, publications, newsletters, research reports, etc. Northern Ireland Safety Group has an active website, weekly e-zine and monthly newsletters and the Institution of Occupational Safety and Health NI has a microsite within IOSH and committee mailer.

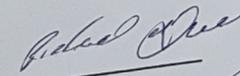

MEDIA

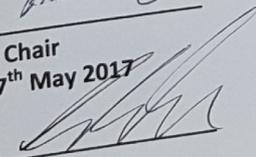

To bring Occupational Health and Safety to the fore and influence Northern Ireland media. Northern Ireland Safety Group have an active PR sub-committee and the Institution of Occupational Safety and Health NI have support from the IOSH media team and branch committee members with IOSH media training.

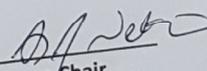

TRAINING AND AWARENESS

To further the aims and strategies of both Northern Ireland Safety Group and the Institution of Occupational Safety and Health NI by jointly exerting influence, collaboration and enhancement of specified campaigns, initiatives and standards.

To be reviewed when strategic plans are reviewed annually or earlier if required
