May Monthly Meeting Cuts Like A Knife – Without Risk!

Most businesses use cutting implements and knives as part of daily life without really thinking about it - even if only for opening parcels or mail. Others have employees who need to use knives constantly in the workplace.

Listen to knife expert Ian Suggitt from Martor UK take you through a presentation geared at advising Health and Safety personnel on how to safely manage the use of knives within their organisation and ensure that your risk assessments are robust and fit for purpose.

A practical demonstration of safety knives will be included.

During his presentation Ian will cover :-

- Why Safety Knives are growing in importance
- The 3 safety levels of Knife Use
- Typical cuts avoided with Safety Knives
- Hidden costs of Unsafe Use of Knives:
  - Admin costs
  - Product damage
- How to improve safety - Knife Risk Assessment Demonstration
